

Analysis of Udacity data survey

* The Data is from Survey Respondents and not from the entire Udacity Student population ****

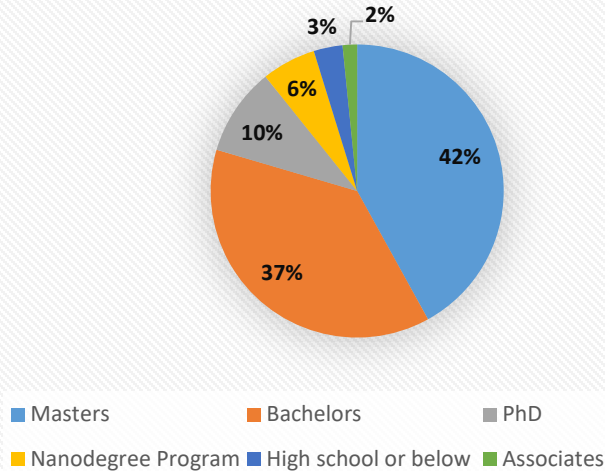

What is the most common way people find out about Udacity?

- As we can see from chart, we the most common way people find out about Udacity is Google

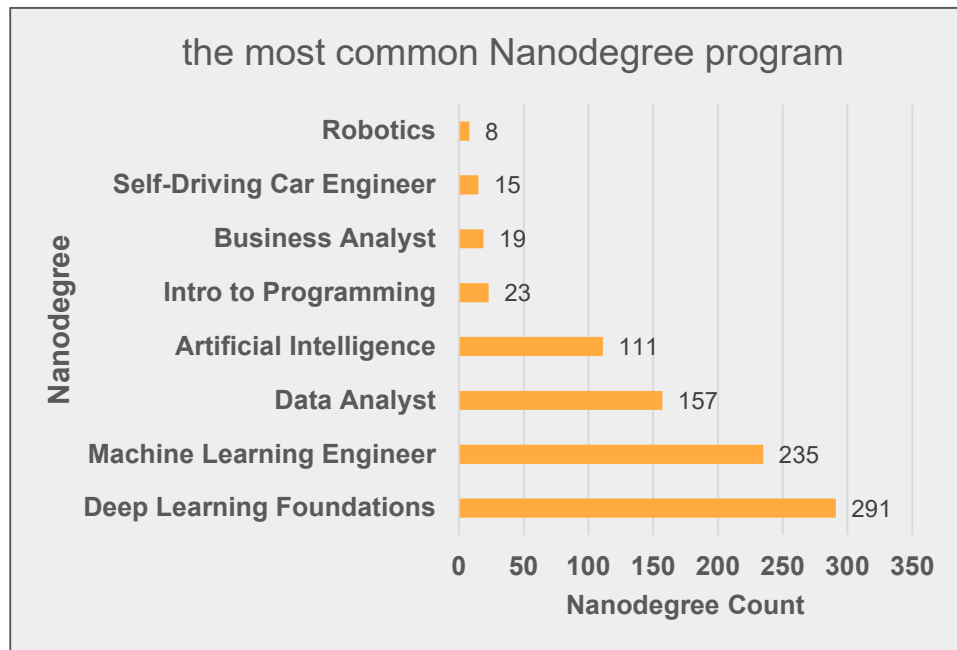

What is the highest level of education for most students?

What is your highest level of education?

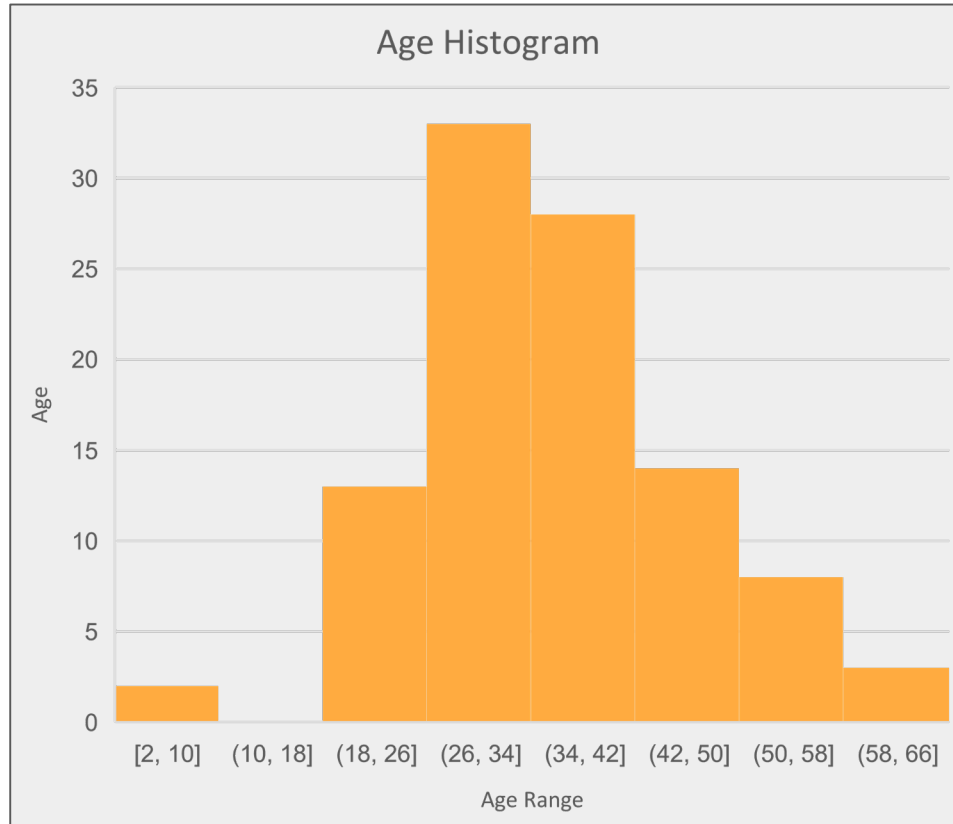

- As we can see from chart, the highest level of education for most students is the Masters with 42% percentage of all student

What is the most common Nanodegree program represented in the survey results?

- As we can see from chart, the most common Nanodegree program represented in the survey results is Deep Learning Foundations

What is the common age of student for nanodegree?

- As we can see the most common age of student (The Mode) is 30
- And the mean (the Average) age of student is 36
- The median is 35 this states the 50% of the students are equal to or over the age of 35 years old
- The Standard Deviation (The Spread) of age of Udacity student is 11
- The age of Udacity student has a 64 range